Mr. Raman Batra, EVP, NIET

I am extremely happy to know that the Computer science & Engineering Department of NIET is bringing out its departmental newsletter during this year. In addition to the numerous achievements of the department, this is yet another milestone in its Curricular and co-curricular activities. I hope the newsletter will bring creative talents of the students. I wish them all the success!! We hope that we have many more years to celebrate this newsletter and growth of NIET!! Cheers !!

Dr. C.S. Yadav, HOD, CSE

The Department of CSE is preparing its graduate engineers towards the challenging technology revolution that will help shape India's future for many years to come. In globalization and the rapidly changing technical environment, graduate engineers must feel confident & boldly face the corporate world. It can all be achieved with in-depth knowledge of fundamentals and practical application of knowledge through sincere and dedicated efforts. Success can be achieved only through dedication to the cause and continuous hard work.

I am confident that our faculty members and students would satisfy the Department's responsibility and credibility by showing a high level of professional competence in their respective domains.

Student Achievements

Three students of CSE department prepared a product out of waste plastic . Nazuk Endlay student of CSE has participated in BUSINESS PLAN event and secured first position in Dr Abdul Kalam Literary and management fest. Ayush Singh has participated in Frugal Engineering event and secured second position in Dr Abdul Kalam Literary and management fest.
